

New book includes Hocking Family History

A new book has been published which includes details of some Hocking family members - In the Shadow of Feathertop – a history of the Lives and Legacy of George Jones and Margaret Hardie.

George and Margaret's daughter, Margaret Jones, married Ezekiel Hocking in Bright, Victoria in 1890. Ezekiel was the second of nine children born to Ezekiel Hocking and Mary Anne Trestrail who arrived in South Australia on the Caucasian in 1857. The book contains a short history of the Hocking migrations to South Australia, the relocation of Ezekiel and Mary Anne to the Ovens Valley in Victoria, and details of what became of Ezekiel Jnr. and his wife Margaret (nee Jones) and their progeny. Included in the book are the details of known descendants of Ezekiel and Margaret.

You can read more about the book at the author's website www.craig-fullerton.com . Orders may be placed online, by post, or by email to the author, Craig Fullerton: craig@craig-fullerton.com

Book Award:

This book was just awarded First Place in the Alexander Henderson Award for Best Australian Family History. This award is presented by the Australian Institute of Genealogical Studies and there were 22 contenders for the 2014 Award.